

The Haber process is carried out at 450°C and 200 atm. pressure.

Explain what will happen to the yield of ammonia if the temperature is increased.