

An atom of carbon contains six protons, six neutrons and six electrons.

Describe where these particles are found in a carbon atom.